AT THE MARYLAND TRACKS

EVERY INDICATION OF A LIVELY OPENING FOR THE SEASON OF RACING.

Many Horses Wintered in the Vicinity Are Well Along in Their Early Preparation—Colonel Parr's Stable—McLean's Two-Year-Olds.

Baltimore, Md., February 19.—With the opening of the local season only about six weeks away, horsemen in this section are already stirring at a lively rate and are making active preparations for their 1917 campaign, which will be ushered in April 2 at Bowie and will then go to Havre de Grace and Pimlico.

Unless all signs fail the Southern Maryland track is in for a banner meeting. Horses in abundance are already in sight and the stabling facilities of the track will be taxed to their utmost.

Forty horses or more have wintered at Bowie and will be fit to race from the first tap of the bell. A strong contingent also is getting ready at the tracks in the vicinity of Baltimore, being housed at Benning.

Ten carloads of horses will be shipped direct to Bowie at the close of the New Orleans meeting and more will come from Havana. The Kentucky Stable will ship twenty-five head to Bowie this month so that by the time opening day rolls around there will be no lack of seasoned racing timber with which to start the meeting.

The stables which have wintered at Benning are not so far along as usual owing to the hard winter, but the track is in pretty fair condition now and horses are going along three-eighths in 43 or 45 every day. There will be plenty of time by April 1 to get the Benning contingent in first-class racing condition.

The track at Bowie is in fine order and the horses that have been wintering there have been able to put in some good work. The little contingent at the Gentlemen's Driving Park is perhaps the farthest along and they will be heard from early.

McBride's Promising Youngsters.

Eddie McBride has his stable at the Driving Park, and they are in fine condition. His string is headed by the good three-year-old Reprobate, which showed so well on the Maryland tracks last fall. Reprobate has grown into a strong, well-finished colt, and will be a dangerous horse at Bowie from the start. Besides Reprobate, McBride has seven two-year-olds which are shaping up finely. A bay colt by Sain is a fine looker and will come to hand early. An imported filly, a sister to Crimper, which was purchased at the Duryea sale at Saratoga last year, is particularly well thought of by her owner. A racy-looking colt by Ballot, a black colt by Dick Finnell, an imported colt by Maintenon and two grand-looking fillies, one by Rapid Water and the other by Chuctanunda, make up the McBride two-year-old string, which he will bring to Bowie.

Contrary to his usual custom, Billy Garth will race nothing early this year. For, lo! these many years the Sage of Albemarle has been coming up from Charlottesville to Benning while the snow was on the ground and at the Washington track has sharpened up a string of youngsters which, year after year, carried off the early plums as regularly as the seasons rolled around.

Will Train for the Parr Stable.

This year the amiable Virginian will be conspicuous by his absence. He will race nothing at Bowie or Havre de Grace and will ship direct from Charlottesville to Pimlico. This year the veteran trainer has signed a contract to handle exclusively the stable of colonel Ral Parr of Baltimore.

The Parr string is expected to cut a considerable figure in the year's turf doings. Crimper, the colt which showed so much speed in his races last year, is expected to be the bright particular star of the band. The colt has wintered well and, being thoroughly acclimated, should improve on his showing of last year.

Another that Colonel Parr is counting on is Nebraska, which, with three Star Shoot yearlings, he bought last fall of John E. Madden for $2,000. Nebraska has developed finely during the winter and is sure to be a clinker among this season's three-year-olds. Colonel Parr has ten two-year-olds of great promise. One of the Star Shoot yearlings is said to be the pick of the basket.

Colonel Parr will be well represented over the sticks, the veteran Shannon River heading the jumping brigade. Daddy Long Legs, which Colonel Parr bought of Emil Herz for $10,000 last fall, will be schooled over the sticks. Willie Allen, as usual, will pilot the Parr jumpers.

Lewis Garth wil have charge of his father's horses this year and will have a mixed stable of about twenty head, which he is already preparing at Benning for the Bowie meeting. After the Maryland meetings the stable will be taken to Canada. Eight home-bred two-year-olds by Celt, Sea King and Glorifier are in the Garth string.

Benning Horsemen Prepare for Bowie.

All the horsemen now at Benning are getting something ready for the opening at Bowie. Albert Simons has twenty of the Whitney string at Washington, among them fifteen two-year-olds. The older brigade, headed by Bromo, is being pointed for the Southern Maryland meeting. Bromo is in fine health and is expected to carry off all the handicaps.

W. P. Burch has Ultimatum, Crank, Alvord and nine two-year-olds, the propetry of Samuel Ross, F. R. Hitchcock and W. C. Eustis, in training. Ultimatum has wintered finely and is being pointed for Bowie.

W. Shields has Top o' th' Morning and Judge Wingfield in charge and will have them both ready to race when the season opens. Judge Wingfield, after showing much promise as a two-year-old last year, went off and did not live up to his early form. This year, however, he is coming out in grand condition and will be heard from.

Dr. Tyree has twenty head at Benning, including eight two-year-olds. Dr. Larrick has charge of the stable this year and will have the horses ready for an early start. The pick of the two-year-olds is a colt by Sweep. This colt outworked everything at Washington in his yearling trials.

McLean Has Sixteen Two-Year-Olds.

E. B. McLean has sixteen two-year-olds at Benning besides his jumpers. The two-year-olds were bought of Mrs. Livingston and are by her stallions. They will probably not get an early start. The McLean stable was trained last year by Lewis Garth, but this season they are in charge of Henry Craven, who trained for the late Col. Robert Neville years ago. Freddie Williams is under contract to ride the McLean jumpers.

Richard F. Carman has twenty-five head at Washington and he will be well represented at Bowie. He has eight or nine two-year-olds of fair promise. Mr. Carman has bought a farm at Sandy Springs, Md., adjoining the property of Senator Blair Lee, and will conduct his breeding operations there. He has three two-year-olds by his stallion, The Turk, at Benning, but they are a little under size.

P. Sheridan will have Back Bay and four or five others ready for Bowie. Earl Truman has a couple of fine-looking two-year-old fillies by Ildrim, which he intends to start at Bowie. These fillies can run some.

NOLAN'S KENTUCKY DERBY CANDIDATES.

Two in the Stable Now and Purchase of Two Others Sought.

(By C. A. Bergin.)

Louisville, Ky., February 19.—Failure to win last year's Kentucky Derby with Lena Misha did not discourage F. J. Nolan, owner of the Beverwyck Stable, and this year he is going to make another attempt for it. Last year Lena Misha was Mr. Nolan's sole reliance, and but for the King James colt going lame in the race, he might have been up with the leaders at the finish instead of landing in last position. This year Mr. Nolan has named two of his best three-year-olds—Crack o' Day and Top o' the Wave, and with one of these he expects to put in a strong bid for the stakes. In order to further his chances he has engaged Charlie Hughes, one of the oldest and most capable trainers in this country, to supervise the colts' training, together wth that of the other horses in the stable. The actual work of getting the horses in condition for the contest will, however, devolve upon trainer George Ziegler, who produced good results for the stable last year. With these two trainers at the helm and an abundance of good material at hand, the Beverwyck Stable's silks ought to be out in front quite frequently on the Kentucky and New York tracks the coming racing season.

The stable this year is better and stronger numerically than in any year of its existence. All told, it embraces twenty-one head, including the two Derby colts, the Kentucky Oaks' candidate, Alone at Last, several older horses and eleven richly-bred two-year-olds. The latter are a fine-looking band and will compare favorably with the juvenile divisions of many of the more pretentious stables.

Trainer Hughes is an ardent booster for Churchill Downs as a winter training point, and it was at his suggestion that Mr. Nolan decided to winter the stable here, and prepare the horses for their spring engagements. The horses have been at the Downs track since last fall, and have developed and done wonderfully well. Despite the unusually severe weather of the past six weeks, not a single case of illness developed among them.

It was here that Hughes trained such turf stars as Clifford, Hermis, Garry Herrmann, Ida Pickwick, Cash Day and Lazzarone, and it was here where he won the Kentucky Derby sixteen years ago with Lieut. Gibson. He is of the belief that this year he will be able to repeat that performance with one of the Nolan colts.

Beverwyck Stable's Older Horses.

The older division of the stable includes the four-year-olds Ima Frank, Lena Misha, Faraway and Old Koenig, all winners last year, and the three-year-olds Crack o'Day, Top o' the Wave, Dreadnaught and Alone at Last. These latter are highly regarded by the stable, and are expected to be frequent winners during the season.

Following is the list of the stable's two-year-olds:

All Aglow, br. f. by Sain—Fulfill.
Bennie's Sister, ch. f. by Superman—Gray Agnes.
Half and Half, br. c, by Sir John Johnson—Plaster.
Ivanovitch, ch. c, by Ivan the Terrible—Hopsetto.
Lady Longfellow, b. f, by Zeus—Olivia Miekle.
Nolawn, b. c, by Sir John Johnson—Onaga.
Reveille II., b. f, by Irish Lad—Ravello II.
Sinn Fien, b. c, by Hessian—Sister Jeanie.
Sixteen to One, ch. c, by The Commoner—Hortensia.
Stick Fast, b. c. by Peep o'Day—Vic Kinney.
Tornado, ch. c, by Sweeper—Lady Selina.

Sir John Johnson, now twelve years old, which has been wintering at the Downs, has been sent to Beaumont Farm, Lexington, to re-enter the stud. He will be bred to Alberta True and several others of the Nolan mares. It is Mr. Hughes intention to breed Alone at Last to Sir John Johnson and continue to race the mare.

Within the past few days Mr. Nolan, through his Kentucky agent, has been negotiating for the purchase of a couple more Kentucky Derby eligibles. Ross & Looney have been asked to place a price on their Waterboy colt, Waterford, and W. H. Baker of Louisville, owner and trainer of the Handsel colt, Green Jones, has been approached with a like object in view. Baker estimates his colt's value at $25,000, naming this high figure in the belief that the colt stands a good chance to win the Derby. Hughes was out at Douglas Park the other day to look the colt over and he was favorably impressed by his appearance. The same night Mr. Hughes left for New Orleans, to try and secure the contract on a good jockey for the stable.

MISSOURI RACING BILL FAVORED.

Jefferson City, Mo., February 19.—For the first time in many years a bill legalizing horse racing has been favorably reported in the senate. This is Senator Casey's bill, providing for a racing commission and for the operating of racing associations during forty days out of each year.

It is deemed doubtful here if the senate will pass this measure.

AUSTRIAN DERBY TO BE RUN IN JUNE.

The Austrian Derby is to be run at Vienna on June 10. According to "Deutscher Sport," twenty-seven German horses are left in the race, of which eight belong to the Graditz Stud, six to the brothers von Weinberg, five to Herr C. Frohlich, four to Freiherr S. von Oppenheim and two each to Prince Hohenlohe—Oehringen and the Mydlinghoven Stud. The value of the race is $20,830, and in addition a prize of honor, the gift of the Emperor of Austria.

G. W. WINGFIELD'S STAKE SUCCESSES.

Horses of Nevada Turfman Win All But One of Tijuana Features—G. A. Alexandra Does Well.

(By J. R. Jeffery.)

San Diego, Cal., February 15.—One of the notable features of the Tijuana meeting has been the success of the stable of George W. Wingfield, Nevada mining magnate, in the stakes so far decided. Thanks to the skill of trainer Early Wright, who has sent the Wingfield horses to the post for their stake engagements in the pink of condition, the stable has all but made a clean sweep of the stakes. The one occasion when the Wingfield colors failed to finish first was when Slippery Elm, carrying top weight of 118 pounds, was beaten by Ed Cudihee in the $2,000 San Diego Business Men's Handicap, one mile and a sixteenth, on January 21. Even this race might have resulted in a Wingfield victory but for the fact that jockey Roscoe Troxler arose from a sick bed to take the mount on Slippery Elm. Troxler, who has shown to marked advantage on the Wingfield horses on other occasions, probably was unable to do his mount justice in the running of this particular race. The list of Wingfield stake successes began with the victory of the good sprinting mare Scarlet Oaks, carrying top weight of 114 pounds, in the Tijuana Selling Stakes, December 16. Slippery Elm, carrying the exacting impost of 130 pounds, was returned the victor in the Los Angeles highweight handicap of $1,200, at three-quarters of a mile, on January 28, and the same game little gelding added to his laurels by a meritorious victory in the Spreckels Handicap of $1,200, one mile, carrying top weight of 118 pounds, on February 11.

It is now generally conceded that Slippery Elm has fairly earned the right to be regarded as the best all around horse racing here this winter. The Schreiber-bred son of Bannockburn—Schwalbe has done everything asked of him in gallant fashion. He has shown an ability to stay as well as sprint, has raced successfully over all kinds of tracks and has handled high weight in a surprising manner, considering his size. He is a small horse, but of the compact type, and symmetrical in every detail. Eastern racegoers will be afforded a chance to see him in action, for he will be the star of the string that trainer Wright is planning to take east the coming spring for a campaign on the Kentucky and New York tracks. It is hardly to be expected, of course, that he will be able to cope with the top-notchers, but if he retains his good form, he undoubtedly will win in fair company. Barney Schreiber, who is spending the winter here, is in love with him.

George Alexandra's Good Season.

George Alexandra, who came here from eastern Canada with a stable of a dozen horses, has been cutting a wide swath in the selling races. No owner has won more races, his record, up to and including the eighty-third day of the meeting, being twenty-four firsts, twenty-one seconds and ten thirds, representing purse winnings of $8,815. Alexandra trains his own horses and it must be admitted that, for a man of his limited experience, he is doing remarkably well. It is only a year or so ago that he was prohibited from racing his horses at an eastern track until he turned them over to a competent trainer, the officials who promulgated the ruling taking the view that he, himself, had not had the required experience to obtain results that would be satisfactory to the patrons of racing. He evidently believes in the close corporation method of doing things, for, after attending to the training of his horses himself, he entrusts them to be ridden by his son, George, who has developed into a fair sort of a jockey. A younger son is also being trained as a jockey, and recently scored his maiden victory. The Alexandra family hails from Birmingham, England, and the head of the establishment has the reputation of not being averse to wagering liberally when his horses appear to have a good chance. The twelve horses with which he came here included The Wolf, Billy Culbertson, Ataka, Galeswinthe, Shaban, Boxer, Privet Petal, Glomer, Last Spark, Tiajan, Hawthorn and Conowingo. It will be recalled that he has won with practically every horse in this list. As a result of selling-race activities, he has lost Billy Culbertson, Privet Petal, Glomer, Last Spark, Hawthorn and Conowingo, but their places have been more than filled by the acquisition of Dominion Park, Lady Rowena, Baron de Kalb, Caro Nome, Lady Leona, Quartermaster, Kid Nelson, First Degree, Princess Janice, Concha, Classy Curl, Billy Nestlehouse and Rita Warner, most of which were claimed out of selling races.

Tijuana Youngsters Moderate.

As a general rule, the two-year-olds that have raced here since the new year came in, are such a moderate band that it matters little that they will be disqualified for racing on the Kentucky, Canadian and New York tracks until next year. A possible exception is the chestnut gelding Avon Carey, a son of Joe Carey—Maid of Avon, that created a new track record of 42½ for three and one-half furlongs in winning a race for maiden two-year-olds on Monday last. This gelding belong to George W. Wingfield and is generally regarded by good judges as above the ordinary. It is likely, however, that the Wingfield stable shelters much more promising material in the juvenile line, for it was the avowed intention of manager George W. Berry of the Wingfield establishment to reserve the best of the stable's youngsters for eastern racing.

The past week has been notable for the appearance of many prominent personages at Tijuana. Turf notables who have visited the course during the past few days include Foxhall P. Keene of New York, former alderman Thomas Carey of Chicago, who owns the Hawthorne track; Hugh I. Wilson, manager of the Butte Jockey Club, and Moses A. Gunst of San Francisco, a devoted racing enthusiast in whose honor Thomas H. Williams named a juvenile stake race at Oakland.

NEW TEXAN BREEDER BEGINNING WELL.

W. H. Askey, Sisterdale, Texas, has just purchased from O. G. Parke of Kyle, Texas, the good young stallion Suffragist, 1907, by Voter—Noonday, by Domino, next dam Sundown (dam of Peep o'Day and Nightfall, dam of the best two-year-old of 1916, Campfire), by Springfield. Suffragist is beautifully bred and was a good race horse, winning a number of races, running a mile in 1:39⅘, three-quarters in 1:12⅖. Mr. Askey will pick up a few well-bred mares and with such a horse at the head of his stud as Suffragist, his entrance among the ranks of breeders and owners should be immediately successful. This is Mr. Askey's first experience as an owner of thoroughbreds, although his father and grandfather both trained and raced horses with much success years ago, and he, when a boy, did considerable riding.

MOSCOWA A GOOD STAYER

TAKES THE MARTIN BEHRMAN HANDICAP AT TWO MILES IN EASY FASHION.

J. J. Murdock Victor in the Mile Handicap—Only Two Favorites Successful—Card of Eight Races Today.

New Orleans, La., February 19.—J. O. Keene's Moscowa demonstrated his ability over a long route by winning the Martin Behrman Handicap at two miles, worth $1,035 net to the winner. Thanksgiving landed in second place, a head better than Menlo Park. Moscowa was an overwhelming favorite, and under the superb ride that Crump gave him, won in hollow style. In addition to the purse, Mayor Behrman, for whom the race was named, presented to the winner a handsome silver cup. The city's chief official viewed the race from the judges' stand with Col. J. P. Sullivan.

The season's record crowd was at the track this afternon and the racing was in keeping with conditions, close finishes being the rule all the afternoon. The crowd in the Palm Garden was so dense as to make a trip through it a hardship. Because of the congestion, the betting slumped considerably, for it stagnated action and the layers were unable to accommodate the would-be backers.

Moscowa and J. J. Murdock, the latter winner in the mile handicap, were the only successful choices during the afternoon. The overthrow of choices began in the opener, when the locally-owned Reilloc bounded home in the juvenile sprint with Shade and Water Wave following. St. Theresa and Notate were the favorites.

Brizz Upsets Calculations.

Chemung was a supposed good thing in the second. He failed to get a place, El Rey, Bannockburn and Rhymer fighting it out. Brizz upset calculations in the third by beating the well intended Gainer, with The Masquerader and Korfhage, the favorites well back.

Whirling Dun was backed with rare confidence in the sixth race, but he was never in the running, Warsaw winning from Diamond with Opportunity heading the others.

The concluding race brought a heart-breaking finish, with Marcus getting up in the last stride to win from Tactless, with King K. following.

The horses of G. W. J. Bissell and J. T. Looney will be shipped to Lexington tonight.

Jockey Mack Garner will be here from his home, Centerville, Iowa, to ride McAdoo in the Crescent City Handicap tomorrow.

C. H. Hughes, who is looking after the interest of the Beverwyck Stable, arrived yesterday in quest of a good rider. He will return to Louisville tomorrow.

The remains of J. U. Strode were taken to St. Louis for interment. Mrs. Strode, James and two daughters went with the body.

E. Murray purchased Mildred Euretta at private terms this morning from W. D. Bernhart.

Sam Louis purchased Hops from H. Fink at private sale. Bombast and Trelawney were bought by A. B. Letellier this morning.

Jockey McTaggart Will Ride at Oaklawn.

Jockey McTaggart will go to Baltimore for a few days' rest before returning to Hot Springs, where he will ride at Oaklawn.

El Rey, winner of the second race, was claimed by G. C. Chancellor for $1,050. Sam Louis claimed Bluebannock out of the same race for $1,250.

The first batch of departures tomorrow will include numerous ones who intend to take part in the Hot Springs' racing. Some of the New York delegation will go on to New York, for a brief stay, before returning to Hot Springs.

The closing day's program is of eight races, with the Crescent City Handicap the stellar offering. Ninety-one hundred dollars in purse money will be distributed to the owners here for the wind-up day of racing. There were 120 horses named in the eight races, which constitutes a record for the number of starters posted for one day on any winter track. The management expects all records for attendance at the track to be broken tomorrow and are planning on an extensive scale to take care of the big crowd.

MILE HANDICAP TO EXECUTOR.

Defeats the Favorite Dolina by a Nose—Candidates for $5,000 Coffroth Handicap on Edge.

Tijuana, Mex., February 19.—Racing this afternoon at the track across the border was over an extremely heavy course. The feature of the day's program was the La Paz Selling Handicap, at one mile, and in a drive of an eighth of a mile, Executor got up to trim Dolina by a nose.

The pair raced in front all the way with Dolina slightly ahead of Executor. It looked as though the mare would win turning into the stretch, but she tired and allowed Executor to catch her in the last stride. The consistent Jawbone finished third.

Rubicon II. won the third race after getting away well. Dot H. ran a fair race to win the second, while Jack K. had little trouble accounting for the two-year-old race.

Jockey E. Smith has been restored to good standing by the stewards. The boy was set down for a bad race run by Manganese, but the horse has run just as bad since and the judges have exonerated the rider in consequence.

Nearly all the candidates for the $5,000 Coffroth Handicap at one mile and a quarter, to be run on Thursday, were given their final works today. The track will be heavy for the stake, but made to order for the probable favorite, Slippery Elm.

MORRISSEY THE ESSEX PARK STARTER.

Lexington, Ky., February 19.—Harry Morrissey received notice today from Fred W. Gerhardy that he has been engaged to do the starting at Essex Park, Hot Springs, Ark.

Phil T. Chinn tonight shipped the Kentucky Stable of twenty horses to Louisville.

May Overton, for many years president of the Cumberland Park Jockey Club of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting John E. Madden at Hamburg Place for a few days.

BENNING AND BOWIE HORSES THRIVING.

Rumor of a New Track in Virginia Not Far Away from Washington.

(By George B. Morris).

Washington, D. C., February 19.—Richard F. Carman, who is wintering his horses at the old Benning course, is of the opinion that racing next season in the east will be the best that has been seen in these parts in many a year.

Mr. Carman will open the season with his horses at the Bowie track. He reports that his stable is in fine condition, and expects to win many races this summer.

Dr. J. S. Tyree, the well-known Washington chemist and horseman, who has been in bad health this winter, is much improved at the present time, and his many friends are anxious to see him about again. Dr. Tyree has purchased eight two-year-olds and they will be seen at the Maryland courses this spring. He reports King Neptune and Celto as being in grand condition.

Billy McGee has taken kindly to the "brushes" and will be seen this year as a steeplechase horse. He is reported to be schooling well, and Dr. Tyree is expecting great things from him.

Bernie Larrick will campaign the Tyree horses, but he does not expect to send a string to Canada, as he has done in the past. His reason for this move is that he fears that racing might not be as prosperous in Canada this year, on account of the war, and he is of the opinion that the Maryland courses offer just as good opportunities, if not better.

It looks now as all the horses that are at the Benning course will be ready to face the barrier when the bugle sounds, on or about April 2. Most of the trainers are giving their horses light work, and with weather conditions like Indian-summer, the horsemen quartered here are jubilant over the prospects of having their horses in tip-top condition for Bowie.

Virginia Race Track Rumor Revived.

There is considerable talk about a new mile track being built in Virginia next summer. Speculation is rife as to where the proposed track will be located, but those who are supposed to be in on the "know," state that it will be contiguous to Washington and in all probabilities will be near the old St. Asaph course. Rumor has it that a well-known young Washington millionaire has associated himself with several prominent horsemen of Warrenton, Va., and they will construct the new course. How the course is to be run and betting allowed, is a matter for future consideration, but it is said that the "oral" system will be used the same as in New York.

That the Virginians want racing is attested by the fact that when Norfolk was running it attracted Virginians from all parts of the state, and was looked upon as a society event more than a mere matter of speculation. The Virginians are as well known lovers of the thoroughbreds as the Kentuckians are and they argue that they see no reason why a race meeting can not be conducted on the same lines as those of New York.

JUAREZ HORSES FOR HOT SPRINGS.

Eighty or More Thoroughbreds Will Be Shipped from Mexican Track to Oaklawn Park.

El Paso, Tex., February 19.—Colonel W. E. Applegate, in correspondence with Judge Jack Campbell, at New Orleans, in regard to securing stabling accommodations at Oaklawn, the Hot Springs, Ark., track, where racing will be held in March, received a wire to the effect that the following Juarez horsemen have been provided for at the Vapor City track: J. C. Ferris, Weir & Applegate, trainer Dick Vestal with the Dr. I. E. Clark string, trainer Tom Munford with the McLemore string, Quinlan & Higel, F. Stowe, A. C. McCafferty, Wallhauser Brothers, William Cain and Tom Parker.

The firms named will carry no less than eighty-four head to the Arkansas track.

The stables of A. A. Gregg, J. A. Clements and Lewis & Lovell were shipped Friday for Hot Springs. There were six horses in the shipment.

DATES ALLOTTED HUNT MEETINGS.

Season to Open Saturday, April 28—Recognition for Large Number of Clubs—Officials Appointed.

(By Ed Cole).

New York, February 19.—The annual meeting of the hunts committee of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association was held at the office of the association Thursday. There were present: J. E. Davis, New York; A. J. A. Devereaux, Pennsylvania; J. Watson Webb, New England; G. Bernard Fenwick, Maryland; James W. Graves, Virginia; A. Fillmore Hyde, New Jersey; H. S. Page, representing the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association.

J. E. Davis was elected chairman of the committee for 1917, A. J. A. Devereaux, vice-chairman. A. J. A. Deveraux, F. S. Von Stade, G. Bernard Fenwick, J. Watson Webb and James W. Graves were appointed a committee on steeplechases for 1917.

Frank J. Bryan was appointed handicapper for 1917 for hunt meetings, F. S. Von Stade and A. J. A. Devereaux were appointed a committee on steeplechase courses at hunt meetings. A. Henry Higginson, J. E. Davis and J. Watson Webb were appointed a committee to confer with the masters of Fox Hounds Association in reference to the registration of territory by recognized hunts.

A resolution was adopted requesting those in charge of hunt meetings to frame conditions for all steeplechases so that the minimum weight carried be 140 pounds both in hunters and open steeplechases, this to apply to all steeplechasing, including handicaps.

It was also resolved that a request be made that at least one steeplechase at each meeting be at a distance of three miles or over.

Meetings Sanctioned for 1917.

Sanction was granted for the following race meetings:

Rockaway Hunt Club, Hewlett's Park, L. I., Saturday, April 28, and Saturday, May 5.

United Hunts Racing Association, Belmont Park Terminal, Queens, L. I., Saturday, May 12, and Saturday, May 19.

Piping Rock Racing Association, Locust Valley, L. I., Wednesday, May 30, and Saturday, June 2.

The Country Club, Brookline, Mass., Saturday, June 16, and Monday, June 18.

Several applications for fall dates were tabled pending the receipt of the complete list, to avoid conflicts and bring the best results in the way of entries.

J. E. Davis was appointed steward to represent the hunts committee at the Rockaway United Hunt and Piping Rock meetings. J. Watson Webb was appointed steward to represent the hunts committee at the meeting of the Country Club at Brookline.

NEW YORK RACING GOSSIP.

Horsemen Anxiously Await Any Legislative Move to Aid Sport—Little Opposition Expected.

(By Ed Cole).

New York, February 19.—Within the next few days racing folks will know something more about the proposed bill of relief for patrons of the sport in this state. Only those who are in close touch with framing a measure to be presented in Albany know just what will be asked, but it is generally conceded that something in the line of the pari-mutuel system will be attempted. It will be the beginning of an effort to legitimatize the speculative side of racing and though the procedure may be slow the idea prevails that if nothing is started nothing can be accomplished.

It may take three or four years before this method could become operative, but so long as the structure is on the way there is a possibility of favorable completion. A mutuel bill may have to pass two legislatures and then be put up to the people to vote upon it. All this would take much time and even should it be defeated racing here would revert to its present status, which, while just tolerated, could be much improved upon from a new point of financial offerings to encourage breeding of horses. This cannot be done under the existing conditions where there are but three sources of revenue—the gate, restaurant privileges and programs.

It is believed here that there would be little opposition to legislative action to relieve the racing situation either from press, public or reformers, the latter element now being convinced that with some sort of legislation much of the city and street speculation would be eliminated.

Col. Winn's Optimistic Observations.

Matt Winn will stay in the city for the next week or two before going to Louisville to prepare for the opening of the season in Kentucky. He anticipates seeing the best Kentucky Derby in the history of the race not only in a contesting way but also in point of starters. As he says: "Surely the biggest field will go to the post and that insures interest above the ordinary. "In speaking of Juarez, Mr. Winn says that while the association lost a little money the popularity of the mutuels was growing daily and the racing was on a paying basis when the typhus fever broke out. "The mutuels began with about $8,000 a day and when we closed we were handling $22,000," concluded Mr. Winn, "and the proceeds from that source were sufficient to cover all our expenses, combined with the gate receipts and other privileges. We shall open again next year at an early date if nothing intervenes. We have fought all kinds of things at Juarez from battling Mexicans to smallpox and typhus and have done pretty well considering. By next season affairs may be more peaceful. We deserve a little sunshine at Juarez and I think we shall get it next season.

"In the meantime Louisville and Empire City will keep me busy and then comes Laurel in the autumn. Of course if we have war it may interfere a bit with racing but not much."

Discussing War Probability.

At this point president Phil Dwyer broke into the conversation with the prediction that if this country goes to war it will cut the attendance at the local tracks at least one-third. Other knights of the Waldorf round table hardly agreed with Mr. Dwyer on the point of numbers though it was generally admitted that war would interfere somewhat with the attendance, but not as much as Mr. Dwyer predicted. Tom Monahan says there are enough old folks alone in New York to make a goodly crowd at any race course even if all the youngsters had to go to the front or cruise the seas.

Price McKinney has not yet left on his yacht for a month's trip as arranged. "Might just as well stick around," he says. "At least until we know something more about the actions of submarines and mines."

MEELICK'S SUCCESS IN THE STUD.

Triple Derby Winner Doing Well in Lone Star State Despite Limited Opportunities.

G. L. Blackford, Denison, Texas, banker, and most enthusiastic breeder of thoroughbred race horses, is, through the wonderful success of the stallion, Meelick, doing much to put Texas on the racing map besides making initiatory steps that are bound to finally result in making Texas one of the greatest of thoroughbred states in America.

It was both a fortunate and wise move this well-known Texan made, when he set upon Meelick as his choice for basis of stock on his thoroughbred ranch.

Though in service only a few years, Meelick has sent to the turf many good performers, the feature of all not laying in their ability to go far so much as their consistency. It must be remembered, however, that Meelick has, to date, not yet had a really good chance through his matings for the production of long-distance horses. Later, when Mr. Blackford mates the horse with mares whose veins carry blood of noted staying stock he should prove equally successful.

To begin with, Meelick was a good race horse in all the words imply. As a two-year-old he won the Sapphire Stakes and the Great Eastern Handicap. The same year he finished second to the unbeaten Colin in the Great Trial Stakes.

Then, when a three-year-old, he came in for many trying races. At that age he won three Derbys—the California at Oakland, the Los Angeles at Santa Anita and the Crescent City at New Orleans.

Meelick is a chestnut horse bred in 1905 by Planudes—Ilythia. Being by Planudes, he comes directly from a great stake winner. Planudes was a son of the unbeaten St. Simon—Lonely, the latter winner of the Epsom Oaks.

Ilythia, Meelick's dam, is by Tammany, winner of $117,000, and a racer owned by the late Marcus Daly of Montana. Ilythia was also a sister to Inishfree, a stake winner at two years in this country and a frequent winner in England for several years. Iroquois, sire of Tammany, was a Derby and St. Leger winner. Bend Or, sire of Ilythia's dam, was also a Derby winner. Shotover, grand dam of Ilythia, has to her credit, a victory in the Derby. In Hermit, sire of Lonely, comes more of the family of Derby winners. Then, again, Stockwell, Lonely's grand sire, won the Two Thousand Guineas besides the St. Leger.

Of all the horses ever brought to the state of Texas, Meelick ranks foremost from the point of good breeding, coming from the bluest of the blue of all Old England's thoroughbred blood.

Therefore it will be seen that Meelick comes from a family of eight Epsom Derby winners and three St. Leger winners and one Oaks winner. For foundation in blood lines, there are few horses that excel Meelick. He surely is possessed of all the requisites that go to make for an ideal stock horse, and Texas and Texans should be proud to claim him.

Already he has drawn the attention of eastern turfmen who have been west looking into the doings of his youngsters.

He has now been in the stud but six years and in the recent disposition at Juarez of a portion of his two-year-olds at private sale to New Yorkers, through Dick Vestal and Mars Cassidy, the two-year-olds will get a chance over the eastern tracks when running in the interests of their new owners next summer. Their efforts will be watched with close interest by westerners.

Following are the pedigrees of the six that went in the Blackford sale to the easterners:

Baccarate, b. c, 2, by Meelick—Army Maid.
Baldpate, ch. g, 2, by Meelick—March Past.
John Curry, ch. g, 2, by Meelick—Flash of Night.
Litholick, b. g, 2, by Meelick—Lithogene.
McKenzie, ch. c, 2, by Meelick—Gay and Festive.
Psyche, b. f, 2, by Meelick—Paschal.

McKenzie is a brother to Dunga Din and Dengro, which raced successfully in Kentucky, New York and eastern Canada.

Psyche is a sister to Vampire and Matrix and a half-sister to Col. Austin and Lodestone. Paschal, dam of Psyche, is by Candlemas, sire of the grand race horse, Irish Lad.

John Curry is a half-brother to Nightcap; also a half-brother to the fleet Othello, which raced so brilliantly, both east and west.

Baccarate is the first foal of Army Maid.—Dr. G. E. McIntosh in El Paso Times.

RAPID SPREAD OF THE TURF IN SPAIN.

Valuable Stake Races Founded at Several of the New Courses.

The sum of $50,000 is offered in connection with the Madrid spring meeting. In all there will be ten days' racing during the meeting, on Sunday, May 20, 27, June 3, 10, 17, 24, and July 1 and on Thursday, June 14, 21 and 28. There are three international races in each day's program, which range in value from $6,000 (the Prix Alphonso XII., of one mile and half, on June 24), down to humble selling races of $500.

The Marquis de la Mina has been elected president of the Spanish Jockey Club in succession to the Duke of Tamames. The French code has been adopted by that body with the following variations: "Handicaps are to be allowed over a minimum distance of three-quarters; handicaps for two-year-olds are not to be prohibited; the earliest date when two-year-olds may run for races of $500 or under is to be after May 15, or on or after July 1 for more important events; geldings to be excluded from all races except selling.

"Le Sport Belge" announces that the king of Spain has authorized M. A. de Neuter to construct a racecourse at Aranjuez in order that a royal meeting after the pattern of Ascot may be held there in the month of May. There is to be racing in Spain this year at Seville, Barcelona, Madrid and San Sebastien, and also, perhaps at Santander. At the last-named place, which hitherto has been chiefly associated with polo, a new racecourse is to be established, and five prizes of $10,000 each will be offered there in August on the Sundays left vacant by the meeting at San Sebastien.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey R. Hoffman, under contract with R. O. Miller, is back at Gravesend from New Orleans.

It is expected that about 550 horses will go from New Orleans to Hot Springs, beginning tomorrow.

Good judges of a horse, who are at New Orleans, think that Spear Lance will be more than a useful horse this spring.

W. W. Percival, one of the best known horsemen in Oregon, died at his home in Independence on December 23 of cancer of the stomach.

There will be no two-year-old races at Hot Springs this season. They can be side-tracked because so many older horses are going there.

Francis Nelson of Toronto will not be in the stand at Essex Park, Hot Springs. He will return to Canada after the Oaklawn meeting, over which he will preside.

The Texan-bred filly Marie Miller, by Abe Frank—Burnie Bunton—herself a speed marvel—is much improved and will be worth watching in the immediate future.

Jockey Jack Hanover and owner B. J. Brannon, to whom he was under contract have about reached a parting of the ways, due chiefly to the performance of Stout Heart, which Hanover rode last Tuesday.

Pan Zareta seems to have lost her remarkable speed. The Newman mare cannot respond with the burst of speed she displayed last year, and her most ardent supporters are beginning to leave her.

Rock View is being well patronized and among his latest bookings are the good mares Oreen, Wing Ting and Kuhla. No son of Rock Sand in this country has better credentials for success as a sire of the future than Rock View.

Morning work at the Fair Grounds during the past few days showed some fast trials, the best of which were: Fair Mac, five-eighths in 1:03⅕; J. Rufus, same distance in 1:03⅖; Ella Ryan, three-eighths in 36, and Gainer half mile in 49⅕.

At James Butler's East View Stud, Wednesday, morning, February 14, the chestnut mare, Schoolmarm, a stake winner at two and three years, by Islington—Mary Stuart, foaled a bay colt sired by Out of Reach. Schoolmarm is also the dam of the winner Schoolboy.

ONE OF THE MOST FAMOUS MARES KNOWN.

Items in the Sensational Career of the Fleet-footed Sceptre.

There may be differences of opinion as to which was the best of the fillies, say of the past quarter of a century; but unquestionably Sceptre ranks high among them. This daughter of Persimmon—Ornament was "in the news" from the outset of her career until its close. She was bred by the late Duke of Westminster, and, but for the death of his Grace would doubtless have carried the famous yellow and black livery. When submitted for sale with the Duke's other horses Sceptre, then a yearling, realized the unprecedented price of 10,000 guineas, her purchaser being R. S. Sievier.

She made an impressive debut at Epsom in the following summer, winning the Woodcote Stakes by four lengths from Csardas, which was looked upon as something out of the ordinary by his connections. Almost equally facile was her victory over a half dozen opponents in the July Stakes; but she was surprisingly beaten in the Champagne Stakes at Doncaster by both Game Chick and Csardas, this being her final effort of the season.

Sceptre made her reappearance as a three-year old in the Lincolnshire Handicap, and in spite of a natural prejudice against second-season animals, especially those of the gentler sex, for the first great handicap of the season, the filly was made favorite. Moreover, but for the intervention of St. Maclou, which was conceding twenty pounds for the year, Sceptre would have justified the confidence reposed in her, but Colonel McCalmont's good colt prevailed by a head. The daughter of Persimmon next ran away with the Two Thousand, Pistol being second and Ard Patrick third; while a couple of days later she completed a notable double by winning the One Thousand.

How Sceptre Failed in the Derby.

On the strength of all this Sceptre was an even-money chance for the Derby, in which, however, she failed to obtain a place, finishing fourth to Ard Patrick, Rising Glass, and Friar Tuck. Her defeat was in some quarters attributed to a lack of staying power, but that this idea was anything but correct was proved only two days later, when she easily beat Glass Jug, Elba, and others in the Oaks.

Another defeat was sustained in the Grand Prix de Paris, in which she was unplaced to Kizil-Kourgan, while she also failed in the Coronation Stakes at Ascot almost immediately after her return to England, the race being won by Sir E. W. Cassel's Doctrine. The following day, however, she had recovered her form sufficiently to win the St. James' Palace Stakes from Flying Lemur, owned by the present Duke of Westminster. At Goodwood, in the Sussex Stakes, she met more than her match in Royal Lancer, to which she was endeavoring to concede six pounds, but at the same meeting she made hacks of Elba, Ballantrae, and others in the Nassau Stakes.

The filly had lost caste to some extent by the time Doncaster came round, and odds of 100 to 30 were on offer against her for the St. Leger, the Irish colt St. Brendan being almost as good a favorite, while such as Cheers, Friar Tuck, Rising Glass, and Cupbearer had adherents. Sceptre was at her best on "Leger" day, as events proved, the filly winning in a canter from Rising Glass and Friar Tuck, which latter pair thus ran true to their Epsom form. St. Brendan finished fifth. On the final day of the meeting big odds were laid on the heroine of four classics for the Park Hill Stakes, but the prize was won by Elba, which was in receipt of twelve pounds. Sceptre's work for the year terminated with this race.

Another Cut for the "Lincoln."

Sceptre had another cut for the "Lincoln" in 1903, when she had to carry 127 pounds. This proved too big a burden, and she finished only fifth, the race being won by Over Norton. She was not seen out again until Ascot Week, when she won the Hardwicke Stakes in a canter from Lord Derby's Gay Gordon. Then came her memorable tussle in the Eclipse Stakes with her Derby conqueror, Ard Patrick, which again got the better of the filly, winning by a neck, with Rock Sand, the favorite, well beaten into third place. This was the last reverse sustained by Sceptre as a four-year-old. It may here be mentioned that the filly was at this period the property of Mr. (afterwards Sir) William Bass, who had secured her for 25,000 pounds subsequent to her defeat at Lincoln.

A goodly proportion of the purchase money was returned when Sceptre won the Jockey Club Stakes in the autumn. For some reason or other the public inclined to the belief that the Sandown Park defeat of Rock Sand was not to be taken at its face value, and the three-year-old was made favorite, but Sir James Miller's colt finished four lengths behind Sceptre. The latter's next appearance was in the Duke of York Stakes at Kempton Park, in which she carried 130 pounds. Notwithstanding this fact, the race was regarded as a foregone conclusion, and Sceptre started at 13 to 8 on. It was, however, only by a head that the odds were landed, the lightly-weighted Happy Slave only going under by a head after seeming to have the issue in safe keeping. There was no question as to the quality of Sceptre after this, and her victories in the Champion Stakes and Limekiln Stakes at the late Newmarket meetings were only in accordance with anticipations.

Defeat in the Gold Cup.

Sceptre ran thrice in the following year, without adding to her laurels. Her first race was the Coronation Cup at Epsom, in which the opposition was select, if limited. She again beat Rock Sand, but was beaten by a length by Zinfadel, a colt which might well have made his mark in the classics of the previous year had not the death of his owner, Colonel McCalmont, rendered him ineligible. Zinfandel and Sceptre renewed acquaintance in the Gold Cup. Slight odds were laid on the former, and 7 to 4 against the filly; but to the dismay of those present both were beaten by the unfancied Throwaway, which, ridden by Willie Lane, finished a length in front of Zinfadel, which like Sceptre, claimed Persimmon as sire, with Mr. Bass' champion three-parts of a length further away, and the French candidate, Maximum II., fourth and last. That Throwaway was the best horse of the day few believed, and the general opinion was that the riders of Zinfandel and Sceptre had allowed the outsider too much latitude regarding him as a regligible quantity.

Twenty-four hours later, Sceptre ran her last race, finishing third to Rock Sand and Santry in the Hardwicke Stakes. On the disposal of Sir W. Bass' stud, Sceptre passed into the ownership of the Messrs. Tattersall for 7,000 guineas. She has not proved an unqualified success at the stud, but one of her progeny, Grosvenor, won the Great Foal Stakes at Newmarket last October.—"J. F. P.", in London Sporting Life.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

C. De Y., Chicago. It was a losing transaction.

T. H. W., Cleveland, O. Bessanta ran unplaced in her race at Juarez, February 11.

M. S. A., Carthage, Mo. Little Bit has been retired from racing and is now in the stud.

Enquirer, Newport, Ky. The promise is being kept. The Havana form was left out because telegraphic communication was so bad that the entries did not arrive in time to prepare the form and get to press. Juarez is not reported by wire for the reason that in this newspaper's opinion the meeting is not stable enough.

ENGLISH FIDELITY TO RACING.

Old racing men were yesterday at Gatwick carried back to the early Victorian days, when horses walked about the country from meeting to meeting. All horses, as well as owners, trainers, jockeys and the general public had to go by road to the meeting, and despite the fact that the majority of the horses had to walk there were seventy-five runners during the afternoon. This demonstrates how determined owners and trainers are to "carry on" with racing.

Eugenist, whose last victory was in a maiden hurdle race at Windsor, showed that he has lost none of his ability over a country. ACTIVITIES OF THE UNITED HUNTS.

Program of Sport for This Season Likely to Attract Many of the Regular Racegoers.

New York, February 19.—This year's program for the United Hunts meet is one that is likely to attract many regular racegoers, as it includes the new United Hunts double event steeplechase, which is sure to obtain the entries of the best cross-country performers. So much money is spent on these hunt meets at the present day to insure high-class sport that they desire the patronage of the public, which they would not obtain if held on the same day as a meeting at Jamaica. One thing is certain, and that is if the regular season opens on or before May 19 it will open at Jamaica and not at Belmont Park, which has been talked of with the idea of giving the season a first-class send-off. The United Hunts meet will be held at Belmont Park Terminal, and it would be unlikely to run meetings within a stone's throw of each other on the same day.

Though only three clubs are giving amateur meets in the metropolitan district this spring, there will be plenty of sport of this kind, as each club will have racing on two days. The Rockaway Hunting Club, a pioneer in the sport, will open the season on April 28 and the Piping Rock Racing Association, one of the latest recruits to the ranks of amateur racing associations, will close the hunt season on June 2, when the regular season will be in full swing. As the first day of the Piping Rock meet will be on Decoration Day, the conflict in dates is not likely to do much harm. Piping Rock caters to a high-class crowd and charges nearly double the admission fee that is required at Belmont Park. With a holiday crowd in full swing at Belmont, it is reasonable to suppose that the exclusive sporting set that made Piping Rock possible will prefer the seclusion of the picturesque Locust Valley course.

The activities of the hunts committee of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association have increased considerably in the past few years, and it now controls hunting and amateur racing in nearly every part of the country. All the men on the committee are sportsmen who ride their own horses, both in the hunting field and at amateur meets and are in the sport for sport's sake. A proposition is under way to further cement the control of different hunts by having each hunt register its territory. A committee now has this matter in charge.
